

The Shopping Cart Program

Introduction:

This is a program that adds the prices of many items together.

How it Works:

The program takes all the item prices in the cart, adds them together and returns the result. If there is an active discount, The total price is lowered by ten percent.